

HAD A LIVELY DAY

Police Experience a Busy Time on Sunday.

Many Petty Offenders Are Arrested by Patrolmen.

FIGHT OVER A GIRL.

One Boy Resents a Slighting Remark.

Blacksmith Arrested for Driving a Horse to Death.

Business picked up in lively fashion around police headquarters Sunday, but the suspension of the blue laws had nothing to do with this unusual activity on the Sabbath. The officers picked up six plain drunks, three trespassers on railroad property, one vag for investigation, three men for carrying concealed weapons, one for cruelty to animals and one on a drunk and disorderly charge—fifteen in all.

Martin Rost, a printer, age 17, and Lancelotti Barbour, 15 years old, were arrested Saturday night charged with fighting on the corner of Ninth street and Kansas avenue. The trouble started (as most of the trouble in this world does) over a girl. Rivals, the eye of jealousy, a slighting remark about the lady fair, and the fight was on.

Bob King and M. Cross, two negroes, had some trouble in the bottoms Sunday and it was alleged that King had a gun. King was arrested and the officers are looking for Cross.

A. C. Chandler, a blacksmith, was arrested Sunday night on a charge of cruelty to animals. It is alleged that Chandler hired a horse and buggy from the Lawless livery barn Sunday, and while in an intoxicated condition, drove the animal to death.

Disension has broken out in the ranks of the Democratic Flambeau club, according to the stories told the police last night by Chas. Cross and P. A. Thomas, who were arrested on charge of carrying concealed weapons and disturbing the peace of the neighborhood on Kansas avenue in the two hundred block. The club met last night in regular session at its hall, 239 Kansas avenue, and Thomas, in some way, got in bad with the other members and was not only ejected from the organization, but ejected from the club rooms. It is said that Thomas waited at the foot of the stairs for Cross, the chief offender, with a club, and that when he saw Cross, he ran with a gun and after striking Thomas over the head with the weapon, proceeded to chase him down the street. Thomas makes some sensational charges against the club, all of which will be aired in police court this evening.

A most unusual complaint was filed with the chief of police today by a Mrs. Creston who claimed that her son, E. T. Creston, a former employee at the local postoffice, was being kept at the Bethesda hospital on Quincy street against the wishes of his parents who wanted to remove him from this place and place him under the care of another physician. The young man had been ill for over a month with typhoid fever. Chief Eaton stated that he had every confidence in the physicians at the hospital and declined to interfere. An investigation of the case by a reporter developed the fact that young Creston is very low with a relapse of typhoid fever, in fact, his life hangs by a hair, and to move him at this time would lay the hospital authorities liable to a charge of criminal negligence. The young man was suffering from a relapse of the fever when brought to the hospital. The wife of Mr. Creston is satisfied with the physician and the hospital.

Chief of Police Eaton stated today that he would have police men at every polling place in the city during election tomorrow to see that there was no infringement of the new primary law. The police will be very strict and cover a multitude of irregularities not specified by the old election law. Better be careful and walk and act in a most circumspect manner tomorrow. If you are a candidate or a warm partisan.

PAGE FOR PROBATE JUDGE.

A Plain Statement.

H. Ward Page, candidate for probate judge, makes the following statement about joint drug stores:

"I consider the drugist, who violates the law by running a saloon drug store, and who enters into a partnership with a jointist, because he is operating under the guise of a respectable drugist. The law which prescribes the duty of a probate judge in the granting of druggists' permits, and an applicant for a permit, besides being a registered pharmacist, lawfully and in good faith engaged in the business of drug selling, must be a person of good moral character, and one who, in the judgment of the probate judge, 'can be entrusted with the responsibility of selling liquors for medicinal and mechanical purposes, and the probate judge may at any time in his discretion revoke such permit on his own motion or otherwise.'"

The law amply equips the probate judge with power to abolish the saloon drug stores, and if I am elected to that office, only those druggists, who honestly obey the law, will be entrusted with the responsibility of selling liquors for medicinal and mechanical purposes, and saloon drug stores will not be permitted to operate. This would be only doing my duty under the law, and I make it one of the planks in my platform. I ask to be nominated and elected."

I AM A CANDIDATE FOR PROBATE JUDGE of Shawnee county, subject to the Republican vote at the primary election.

I AM A CANDIDATE FOR PROBATE JUDGE of Shawnee county, subject to the Republican vote at the primary election.
